The video player shows a video titled "Taxes & Smuggling - Prelude to Revolution: Crash Course US History #6" by John Green. The video description reads: "In which John Green teaches you about the roots of the American Revolution. The Revolution did not start on July 4, 1776. The Revolutionary War didn't start on July 4 either. (as you remember, I'm sure, the Revolution and the Revolutionary War are not the same thing) The shooting started on April 19, 1775, at Lexington and/or Concord, MA. Or the shooting started with the Boston Massacre on March 5, 1770. At least we can pin down the Declaration of Independence to July 4, 1776. Except that most of the signers didn't sign until August 2. The point is that the beginning of the Revolution is very complex and hard to pin down. Take a walk through the timeline of events, and you'll see why it's so hard to pin down the start of the Revolution." The video player also shows a list of categories, credits, and a video description.
